National Scholarship Program (University of Toronto) Book Award – for SPONSORED applicants

Description of Award:

The University of Toronto National Book Award Program recognizes and rewards the very best Canadian secondary school students, regardless of which university those students choose to attend. These are students who demonstrate superior academic performance, original and creative thought, and exceptional achievement in a broad context. They excel in academic pursuits, demonstrate enthusiasm for intellectual exploration and have a strong involvement in the lives of their schools and communities. It is not necessary that the student intend to apply for admission to the University of Toronto.

Award recipients receive a National Book Award recognizing their achievements, and as a symbol of their academic potential. It is a non-monetary award. The book will be presented to the student at their secondary school graduation ceremony at the end of the school year. Students nominated for this award are invited to submit an application to the National Scholarship Program.

If you would like to be considered for the University of Toronto National Book Award and Scholarship Program, please fill out the application below and submit to guidance (Ms. Deroo) by October 8TH, 2021.

Chelsea Addison Memorial Bursary (Page 1 of 3)

This bursary was created to honour and remember the life of a wonderful young Norfolk County resident named Chelsea Addison, whose life was tragically cut short by mental illness. After battling anxiety and depression throughout her teen and adult years, Chelsea died by suicide at the age of 26.

This bursary is funded and organized by Norfolk Rotaract, with the help of the CAMHS Wellness & Recovery Centre.

OBJECTIVE

By offering this bursary, we hope to help end the stigma surrounding mental illness, bring about mental health awareness in our community and hopefully engage young people and others in this very important conversation.

"It is not so much that suicide is hidden, but that we hide it. Denial and avoidance are barriers to suicide prevention." - from the 'Suicide; Facts, Tips and Resources' handbook developed and distributed by the Haldimand-Norfolk Resource Centre.

QUALIFICATIONS

The Chelsea Addison Memorial Bursary will be awarded to one student aged 21 and under (as of December 31, 2019) in either Haldimand or Norfolk County each year. To qualify for this bursary, an applicant must have applied to a post secondary program and either;

- Be entering into a post secondary program with a focus on the field of treating and/or studying mental health.

-Or-

- Be someone who has personally dealt with a mental health challenge. A mental health challenge can be defined as anything that has contributed to a decline in mental health for the applicant (trauma, bereavement, addiction or illness affecting the applicant can all be defined as mental health challenges) Because one objective of this scholarship is to remove the stigma that surrounds discussing mental health, applicants must feel comfortable with receiving the award at their graduation ceremony. No personal details of their story will be shared during the presentation without their explicit permission.

Please note selection will not be based on grade point average or extra-curricular activities though they may be included in your essay.

The bursary will not be awarded to the selected candidate without proof of acceptance to their program. Proof such as a class schedule will be required.

HOW TO APPLY

Students wishing to apply for the Chelsea Addison Memorial Bursary are asked to send a personal essay along with their application form to the Norfolk Rotaract Club – Bursary Selection Committee. Completed application packages should be sent to rotaractbursary@gmail.com or dropped off at your school guidance department.

BURSARY AWARD

One (1) student chosen to receive the Chelsea Addison Memorial Bursary will be awarded with a cheque of between $500 and $1000 and have their name engraved on a plaque which will be displayed in their high school during the following school year. Final award amount will be decided once all bursary funds are calculated.

Please know that if you are thinking about dying by suicide, you are not alone. Talk to a friend, a family member or reach out to the resources we have in our community that are listed below. You matter. Please do not suffer in silence.
