Outstanding Leadership Catholic Virtues Celebrate

2018 Catholic Student Leadership Awards

Celebrate

The Catholic Student Leadership Award honours the gifts of young people across the Brant Haldimand Norfolk Catholic District School Board. This prestigious award recognizes students who demonstrate the Catholic Virtues in their parish, at school and in the community. Each award recipient is nominated by his or her teachers and principal in collaboration with their parish priest. Award winners are extremely talented individuals who demonstrate outstanding qualities in Catholic leadership, family commitment, involvement in school activities and dedication to their parishes and communities. These award recipients are true role models who lead virtuous lives every day. Catholic Education Week affords us the perfect time to pay tribute to the student leaders in our schools and reflect on the importance of faith in our lives and the role it plays in Catholic education. Congratulations to all of the 2018 Catholic Student Leadership Award winners.

— Rick Petrella, Chair of the Board

Burning In My Soul

Matt Maher

There is power, power
Here in this hour, this hour
We're all together, together
Waiting here as one

There is power, power
Here in this hour, this hour
We're all together, together
Waiting here as one

Whoa
Hear the sound from Heaven
Whoa
A mighty rushing wind
Whoa
We're calling for revival
God let Your fire fall again
It's burning in my soul
Burning in my soul

All your sons and your daughters
Dreaming the dreams of their father
Seeing the signs and the wonders
The Kingdom of God

Whoa
Hear the sound from Heaven
Whoa
A mighty rushing wind
Whoa
We're calling for revival
God let Your fire fall again
It's burning in my soul
Burning in my soul

I cannot contain it this fire inside
I cannot contain it so let it shine
I cannot contain it this light of mine

It's burning in my soul
Hear the sound from Heaven
Whoa
A mighty rushing wind
Whoa
We're calling for revival
God let Your fire fall again
It's burning in my soul
Oh, it's burning in my soul
Yeah, it's burning in my soul
Oh, start a fire in my soul
In my soul, in my soul, in my soul

There is power, power
Here in this hour, this hour
We're all together, together
Waiting here as one

It's burning in my soul
It's burning in my soul

Congratulations

She participates in school food drives to support local neighbours in need through the Brant Society of St. Vincent de Paul.

Distinguished Catholic Graduate Award

Diana Dumlavwalla

In her elementary years, Diana attended Resurrection School in Brantford where she excelled in all areas. In one particular year, she placed at the top of the competition in the Board's Science Fair, the Legion speech contest and multiple classes of vocal, piano and cello at the Kiwanis Music Festival. At Grade 8 graduation, Diana was recognized both for her academics as well as for her Catholic leadership.

At St John's College, Diana continued to achieve high levels in academics and in music and was extremely involved in the school's faith community. She soared as an "eagle" but also as Peter Pan in multiple sold-out performances at the Sanderson Centre for the Performing Arts. In October 2000, Diana graduated from St. John's College sharing the Headmaster's trophy in recognition of her achievements and contributions to the school community.

Throughout this time, Diana was a key component of the music ministry team at St. Pius X Parish in Brantford. She led the congregation in song, as well as performing inspiring solos for Masses and special celebrations.

In the fall of 2001, Diana left Brantford to study music. She completed her Doctor of Musical Arts Performance degree at the University of Toronto. She received her Master of Music (Piano Performance) at the Royal College of Music in London, Honours Bachelor of Music (Piano Performance and Voice) at Wilfrid Laurier University and an Associate diploma from the Royal Conservatory.

Currently, Diana is Assistant Professor of Piano Pedagogy at Florida State University. Previously, she taught at Western University where she developed the faculty's inaugural doctoral piano pedagogy course. She has instructed at the University of Toronto, University of Windsor, Wilfrid Laurier University, and the Beckett School in Kitchener. She served as a member of the Royal Conservatory of Music College of Examiners and adjudicated at local, regional and provincial festivals.

As a soloist and chamber musician, Diana has performed in North America, Europe and Australia. She presented lecture recitals at the World Piano Pedagogy Conference (Phoenix), National Conference on Keyboard Pedagogy (Chicago), John Weinzweig Symposium (Toronto), Australasian Piano Pedagogy Conference (Queensland), and the London International Piano Symposium (United Kingdom).

Diana continues to share her vocal talents in service as a Cantor at St. Pius X Parish in Brantford and in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Hamilton where she sings at major diocesan celebrations including Episcopal and Priesthood Ordinations. Diana has regularly been heard on the nationally televised Daily TV Mass, produced by the National Catholic Broadcasting Council. Whenever she returns to Brantford from Florida, she rejoins the St. Pius X Parish music ministry. Diana's accomplishments are a testament to living a life that exemplifies our Ontario Catholic School Graduate Expectations.

Outstanding Contribution to Catholic Education Award

June Szeman

Last May, our Catholic community was deeply saddened by the loss of June Szeman, an inspirational contributor to Catholic education.

Throughout her life, June was a passionate advocate for Catholic education. June began her teaching career at St. Basil's School in Brantford. From there, she taught in various schools in the Catholic system. June was well known for inviting student teachers into her classroom to learn so that they too could carry on the mission of Catholic education.

June went on to become a principal in the Catholic system and then a Family Life Consultant with the Brant County Separate School Board. She ended her formal teaching career as a Superintendent with the Oxford Separate School Board.

Upon retirement, June further demonstrated her dedication and commitment to Catholic education by serving as a Catholic School Trustee for 14 years. During this time, June also chaired the CCSTA

AGM with her exceptional level of style and hospitality.

June was elected to the role of Board Chair six times and sat on many committees that helped guide the direction of the district. One of June's most notable and long-standing initiatives was the institution of the Catholic Student Leadership Awards ceremony. June is well known for her contributions to the organizing committee of the 'When Faith Meets Pedagogy' conference.

June not only served the Catholic education community, but also focused her efforts and talents on her family and her community. Organizations such as the Brant County Healthcare System, committees of the City of Brantford, the Villages event, Employment Standards for those with Disabilities, and the provincial Retired Teachers' of Ontario (RTO) benefited from June's hard work and dedication.

Walter VanLaeken

Walter is a lifelong Catholic whose actions demonstrate his commitment to Catholic education through living a life of love and service in Christ. Walter attended Grades 1-8 at Our Lady of La Salette School. During his elementary school years, he was an altar server in his parish. After completing Grade 8, he attended boarding school at St. Jerome's Catholic High School in Kitchener where he served meals to the priests and students in order to help supplement the costs of his education.

After finishing school, Walter worked on his farm, married Margaret and they had four children. At this time, they were active members of Sacred Heart Parish in Langton. When their eldest child entered school, Walter became a trustee with the local Catholic School Board and continued to serve when the Boards consolidated into the Haldimand-Norfolk Roman Catholic Separate School Board.

Walter served as a trustee for 19 years, two of which were spent as Chair of the Board. He was instrumental in the building of new schools and additions to existing schools. Walter ensured students who could not attend school due to health reasons were tutored at home. He worked with the public board to purchase special education services that the Catholic Board could not provide. Walter was also dedicated to staff, ensuring fair wages and favourable working conditions. Before full funding for Catholic schools was in place, Walter visited families in Norfolk County to safeguard the continuation of tax dollars to support the Catholic system.

In the community, Walter served on Norfolk County's Regional Council and as Deputy Mayor for two terms. For many years, he canvassed with the Red Feather Campaign, a fundraiser that preceded the United Way. Walter is a sixty-year member of the Knights of Columbus where he enjoys helping out with Free Throw competitions. He and his wife Margaret volunteer their time to judge public speaking competitions and even though their own children and grandchildren have all graduated from the Catholic school system, they still continue to attend school Masses.

Go Make a Difference

Go make a diff'rence.

We can make a diff'rence.

Go make a diff'rence in the world.

Go make a diff'rence.

We can make a diff'rence.

Go make a diff'rence in the world.

We are the salt of the earth,
called to let the people see the love of God in you and me.

We are the light of the world,
not to be hidden but be seen.

Go make a diff'rence in the world.

We are the hands of Christ reaching out to those in need,
the face of God for all to see.

We are the spirit of hope;
we are the voice of peace.

Go make a diff'rence in the world.

So let your love shine on,
let it shine for all to see.

Go make a diff'rence in the world.

And the spirit of Christ
will be with us as we go.

Go make a diff'rence in the world.
